 Summer

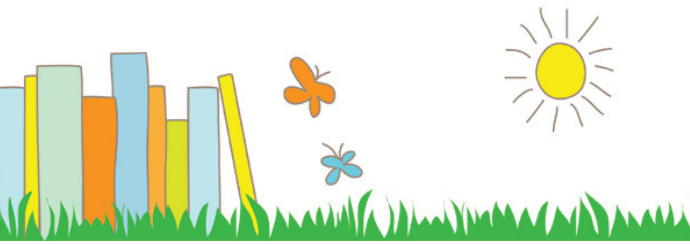

CAMP SOAR

Greenwood School District 50 is partnering with the community on their summer literacy initiatives, Camp SOAR (Summer Opportunities for Acceleration and Remediation).

Located this summer at Pinecrest Elementary School, this camp will focus on reading and writing instruction in the morning, and provide enrichment activities for students in the afternoon.

For 6 weeks, students in K5-3rd grade will be given the opportunity to improve their learning abilities and make lasting memories through adventure trips.
